PEACE SUNDAY 2026: Peace Sunday will be held on Sunday 18th January. Pope Leo has announced the theme – ‘Peace be with you all: Towards an ‘unarmed and disarming peace’ – and has continued the exhortation of Pope Francis that the call to live nonviolent ‘disarmed’ lives is core to Catholic Social Teaching and the key to peace in a world scarred by violent conflict. The Bishops’ Conference encourages us all to use the day to reflect on the Pope’s message for the World Day of Peace on the 1st January. On Peace Sunday, Pax Christi ask for support for their work which includes promoting nonviolence as a way of resolving conflict, advocacy and campaigning for peace and peace education in schools. You can also donate via their website

SAINTS OF THE WEEK: 12th January: St Aelred of Rievaulx (1109-67) The son of a Saxon Priest at Hexham, he was in early life a courtier in the household of King David of Scotland. He then became a Cistercian Monk at Rievaulx in 1147. He wrote his first important work at the invitation of St Bernard. His interest in psychology and his devotion to the suffering humanity of Christ led him to write especially about the nature of friendship for which he is most famous. He also wrote a life of Edward the Confessor.

17th January: St Anthony of Egypt (c.251-356) In his late teens Anthony gave away his possessions to live a life of asceticism. Eventually he moved into the desert to be completely alone and undistracted in his search for God. There he had many visions. The discipline and holiness of his life attracted increasing numbers of followers. In c.305 he came out of solitude to organise these into simple communities of hermits, so beginning the process that was to establish monastic life as an important element in the Church. The life of Anthony, thought to have been written by St Athanasius had a huge impact in the west as well as the East and did much to popularise monastic life in the West of Europe. Patron Saint of skin diseases, basket makers, brush makers, grave diggers and swine-herders.
